So, You Finished Rehab

You're sober now. Living in an Oxford House. Waking up early to catch the bus to a job that barely pays the bills. You're splitting a fridge with three others in addiction, listening to them fight over food or relapse excuses, trying to stay focused on your own lane, your own recovery.

You're hitting your meetings. Three a week. You're sitting in folding chairs under fluorescent lights, listening to other people's pain, trying to believe that maybe, just maybe, one day, yours will turn into purpose too. And I know there are nights when it doesn't feel worth it. When you're sitting on the edge of your bed staring at the same four walls, thinking, "Is this really what I got sober for?" When the silence gets so loud it starts screaming your name. When giving up feels easier than fighting through another day.

But let me tell you something — it takes a rare kind of strength to do what you're doing. Because anybody can self-destruct. Anybody can run. Anybody can hide behind a bottle, a pill, or a pipe. But it takes a fighter to start from scratch and rebuild their life one day at a time.

You're not weak because it's hard. You're not broken because it hurts. You're becoming. You're laying the bricks for a life that's going to mean something.

That bus you're riding to that minimum wage job? That's not humiliation — that's humility. That's faith in motion. Every mile is proof that you're not who you used to be.

The online recovery community plays a big role in my support system. Sometimes I feel like I'm actually closer with people who are thousands of miles away, than I am with people standing right beside me.

So, shoutout to the random people on the internet who I've never met in person, but who cheer me on, love me and support me and my recovery NO MATTER WHAT.

Open Meeting – open at 6:08 pm with the Serenity Prayer

A Declaration of Unity – This we owe to A.A.'s future; to place our common welfare first; to keep our Fellowship united. For on A.A. unity depend our lives, and the lives of those to come.

Attendees - Doug P., Lisa S., Ryan P., Kimmie P., Teri K., Jason H. (incoming Dist. 4 rep) & Bob P. (incoming Dist. 5 rep)

Election of Officers – none at this time

Secretary Report – November 13, 2025, minutes approved.

Reports

- Teri K., accountant, presented the November 2025 financial report. Highlights are as follows:
Receipts including sales = $14,085.37 (includes 7th Tradition contributions in the amount of $5,767.98);
Total expenses = $10,782.07; November net cash = $3,303.30; cash available for operations = $21,183.08 (plus $20,221.44 Operations Prudent Reserve and $11,000 Literature Prudent Reserve). Inventory on Hand = $28,015.56. Please see November 2025 financial report for full details.
- Intergroup Chair: Ryan P. reported David H., webmaster, presented bid to host website (rather than using Northwind). Intergroup members voted unanimously to accept bid for two-year contract which Ryan will sign.
- Intergroup Treasurer: Kimmie P. reported beginning checking account balance as of 11/1/25 = $1,001.03; ending balance as of 11/30/25 = $1,001.03. Savings account balance = $25.00. No income or expenses reflected.
- Intergroup Co-Chair: Richard T. absent.
- Store Report: Jen L. absent.

Steering Committee District Representatives Reports

- District 3 Representative: Position vacant.
- District 4 Representative: Doug P. reported they had "one heck" of a Thanksgiving meal. The district will not have a business meeting in December; next business meeting will be held in January with the new service officers. The district's Christmas party is this Saturday with Santa at 5:00 pm.
- District 5 Representative: Jen L. absent. Bob P. reported their district's business meeting will be held this Sunday with an ugly sweater and potluck dinner.
- District 8 Representative: Lisa S. reported the district's November and December business meetings are combined and will be held this Thursday with our group dinner first. One of our District 8 members will attend the Intergroup business meeting this Thursday to stand as our Steering Committee rep.
- District 9 Representative: Position vacant.

Old Business

- Per Doug, Kim tested QuickBooks Online with the store's current credit card reader and the test went well. Teri set up the merchant service, so a new tablet is not necessary to process credit card sales.
- Central Office holiday party is scheduled for December 12th & 13th (Friday & Saturday) during store hours.
- Year-end store inventory is scheduled for Sunday, January 4, 2026, at 9:00 am.

No business was conducted between the November and December 2025 Steering Committee business meetings.

New Business

- There is one pamphlet rack left at Central Office, and it will be made available for sale to a home group. A.A.W.S. does not provide these racks any longer, so a new supplier will need to be found.
- Copy machine lease is due for renewal soon.
- Kim requested Teri visit the store to assist with QuickBooks Online training.
- $50 cash gift for Christmas will be presented to each of the three sales associates.
- Intergroup Bylaws have been made available to the new incoming Steering Committee members, and they will vote on the officer roles during the new service term beginning January 2026.

Meeting adjourned at 6:42 pm

No Executive Session was held

Minutes submitted: Lisa S.

TVICO Steering Committee Secretary

JANUARY JOKES AND PICS FOR A LAUGH

The Farmer's Potatoes: An old farmer writes to his son in prison, complaining he can't plant potatoes because he can't dig the field alone. The son writes back telling him not to dig there, as that's where he buried stolen money. The police read the letter, dig the field, but find nothing. The son then writes back to his dad, "Now plant your potatoes dad, it's the best I can do from here."

New Year's Tense Moment: The past, present, and future went to a bar on New Year's Eve. It was tense.

Spider Resolutions: Where do spiders watch the ball drop on New Year's? On the web.

Knock, knock!

Who's there?

Jewel.

Jewel who?

Jewel be happy to know it's 2026!
