Treasure Valley Intergroup Newsletter

From the editor's desk

January 15, 2022

Well, here we are. 2022. The sun is slowly coming back around to us, each day a handful of seconds longer and every night a few moments shorter, the change picking up speed as we hurtle toward another spring, summer, winter, and autumn. Likewise, my years seem to gain pace and gravity as I pass through middle age and toward the next stage of my life. And, by the way, we're no longer flirting with the fin de siècle—the century has solidly turned. I am so grateful that AA is teaching me to be present with my feelings so that I can experience these brief moments as they flicker by, one to the next.

The written word can bottle at least some part of these moments, and so I would like to acknowledge the honor and sense of responsibility that I feel at being the Treasure Valley Intergroup's newest newsletter editor. Thank you to the Board, and especially to Brenda M. for her support during the transition! I welcome your thoughts, ideas, and questions as we travel this year around the sun, together.

Warmly,

Ellie D.

2. If you do not know the full name and the mailing address of the recipient and want Grapevine to select an alcoholic in need from the requests we have received: Give a Carry the Message Gift Certificate to someone you do not know (such as an alcoholic in prison.)

Follow these steps:
