ACCEPTANCE

Acceptance is the answer to all my problems today.

When I am disturbed, it is because I find some person, place, thing or situation – some fact of my life – unacceptable to me, and I can find no serenity until I accept that person, place, thing or situation as being exactly the way it is supposed to be at this moment.

Nothing, absolutely nothing happens in God’s world by mistake. Until I accept myself, my situation and my life completely on life’s terms, I cannot be happy.

I need to concentrate not so much on what happens in the world as on what needs to be changed in me and in my attitudes!

DISTRICT 5 PRESENTS

WHAT: Workshop on why the Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous are important to our fellowship.

- Traditions 7-14 will be presented at this workshop.

WHEN: Saturday, September 21st @ 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

WHERE: Boise New Hope Church of the Nazarene
8585 W. Overland Road, Boise, ID 83709
(park & enter around back of church)

WHY: The Twelve Traditions of A.A. resulted from a need for guidance in our growing organization. Co-founder Bill W. wrote them in the 1940s to address the various questions that arose among A.A. groups. These principles continue to provide A.A. groups with a framework for success. The Traditions provided guidelines (not rules) that would help A.A. groups then and in the future. They addressed relationships with the outside world and within Alcoholics Anonymous itself. A.A. groups continue to use The Twelve Traditions to steer toward that group ideal of unity so that the groups may continue to carry the hope to still-suffering alcoholics around the world.

Acceptance

In Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) meetings around the world, people often talk about acceptance. This idea, along with the Serenity Prayer and many other words and sayings, is a big part of our recovery that anyone familiar with our 12-step program should recognize, some of these phrases come from the Big Book, while others are created and shared by AA members. Over time, these sayings have become well-known. One well-known saying is “Acceptance is the answer to ALL my problems today.” Other phrases like “life on life’s terms” have also become popular. For many years, these sayings were passed on by word of mouth at in-person meetings or included in new editions of the Big Book of AA. It’s amazing how attending meetings can bring peace of mind as people in recovery share their experiences, creating new ways of healing together.

The “Acceptance” passage originally appeared in the third edition of the Big Book under the story title “Doctor, Alcoholic Addict.” When the fourth edition was printed, the story was renamed “Acceptance is the Answer” because it was so often quoted. The author of this story, Dr. Paul O., was a doctor from California, who struggled with alcoholism and pill addiction. His wise words resonate with many in recovery, as they connect with a Higher Power and find the message they need. Even though Dr. Paul struggled with accepting himself, he wrote one of the most quoted passages in the Big Book. This passage has helped hundreds of thousands of people learn to accept their lives as they are. Acceptance creates a spiritual pause, allowing a Higher Power to enter and communicate with us, and through us, to help others who are still suffering, including ourselves.

We understand that by helping others, we also help ourselves. This reflects the teachings in the acceptance passage. Nothing in God’s world happens by mistake. The Serenity Prayer is another valuable tool for increasing peace of mind, which grows stronger as we repeat it and share it with others. No one in AA has to face their problems alone. Members support each other in “living life on life’s terms,” with spirit, service, and love.
